The Department of Criminal Justice Services Announces Re-Appointment of Board Member

We are pleased to announce the re-appointment of John W. Hall, III to the Private Security Services Advisory Board effective September 13, 2012:

John W. Hall, III

Private Security Services Business Representative

John W. Hall, III is the President and Co-owner of American Security Group, LLC, ASG Investigations and ASG Training Services based in Richmond, Virginia; specializing in private security and investigations since 1994. He was formerly employed by Allied Medical Supply, as an Account Executive. Mr. Hall holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing and is a member of the Western Henrico Ducks Unlimited Committee.

Mr. Hall's decision to seek reappointment was inspired by his aspiration to serve our community by continuing to be involved while providing feedback and communication to the industry's professionals and assist with regulatory oversight and suggestions.

Mr. Hall brings over (17) seventeen years of experience in the Private Security industry to the reappointment of the Private Security Services Business Representative.
